

Enfield Citizens Advice Bureau Open Day

Thursday 2nd June 2011

Have you got time on your hands?

Are you looking for an intellectually stimulating voluntary role?

Do you have skills to offer the community?

Do you want the chance to meet likeminded people?

Do you want the chance to gain a recognised qualification in the field of Generalist Advice?

Enfield Citizens Advice Bureau will be hosting an Open Day on June 02nd for all prospective volunteers interested in the role of Adviser or Gateway Assessor. As a prospective candidate, you will be expected to volunteer for at least 2 days a week, be willing to take part in ongoing training and be confident, articulate and communicative. If you feel you have the time, the inclination and the enthusiasm to volunteer with us, then please register your interest by telephoning Marcia Cabey, Volunteer Development Manager on 0208 375 4178 or by e-mailing volunteer.development@enfieldcab.org.uk by 24th May.

- Application forms will be available at the open day
- If you meet the basic criteria you will be invited for an interview
- If you are selected you will be allocated a place for the next available intake
