

Enfield Council Commission and the Riots, Communities and Victims Panel

2nd November 2011, Dugdale Centre, 6pm–8pm

The national independent Riots, Communities and Victims Panel and Enfield Council Commission have been set up to examine and understand why the August 2011 riots took place. They are taking a grassroots approach, listening to the experiences of people in communities affected by the riots.

As part of this work, the Panel are holding a series of meetings to obtain the views of residents across London who were directly affected by the August disturbances.

The meeting in Enfield will take place on Wednesday 2nd November in the Dugdale Centre (Thomas Hardy House, 39 London Road, Enfield, EN2 6DS) from 6pm–8pm and will be jointly hosted by the Enfield Council Commission and the Panel.
